Please turn off all cell phones and pagers and refrain from flash photography.

We welcome to the Lord's Table all Baptized Christians, who commune in their home parish and who wish to receive the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of their sins. Those with questions about the meaning of Holy Communion or who wish a private confession and absolution should contact a pastor during the week prior to communing. At weekend worship, both the chalice and individual cups are offered. Please assist servers with the chalice by holding it by the bottom and guiding it to your lips. Those desiring a blessing may fold their arms across their chests.

ACTIVITY BAGS FOR THE LITTLE ONES: The activity bags, hanging from the unfinished wood coat rack in the narthex, are filled with engaging [but quiet] activities for our youngest worshippers. Feel free to pick one up on the way into worship, and to return it on your way out. Supplies in the bags are regularly replenished from donations.

AN ORDER FOR CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS (please stand)

P: In the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen

P: When we were baptized, we died and were buried with Christ.

C: We were baptized so that we might have a new life, just as Christ was raised to life by the glory of God the Father.

P: Let us, therefore, confess our sins to God, so that, called out of darkness into God's marvelous light, we might proclaim God's mighty acts.

Silence for reflection and self-examination.

P: Almighty and all-merciful God,

C: We are dead in trespasses and sin; we have no power to rise. We have offended your majesty and denied your divinity; we have brought death and darkness where you once said, "Let there be light." We are dead in trespasses and sin; we have no power to rise.

P: But Christ is risen.

C: Risen indeed!

P: Since we have been united with him in a death like his,

C: we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. For his sake, our Father, we implore you: forgive our sins, and let our troubled hearts find peace in his promises. Let us be raised with Christ!

P: "Thus it is written, that the Messiah had to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins must be proclaimed in his name." That Word is now proclaimed to you.

C: We have heard the Word of the risen Lord! Alleluia! Amen

FIRST LESSON: (please sit) Acts 8:26-40

An angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a wilderness road.) ²⁷So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship ²⁸and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. ²⁹Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over to this chariot and join it." ³⁰So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" ³¹He replied, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. ³²Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this:

"Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter,
and like a lamb silent before its shearer,
so he does not open his mouth.

³³In his humiliation justice was denied him.

Who can describe his generation?

For his life is taken away from the earth."

³⁴The eunuch asked Philip, "About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?" ³⁵Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus.

³⁶As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?" ³⁸He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. ³⁹When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. ⁴⁰But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

PSALMODY: Hymn #679 "For the Fruit of All Creation"
(The hymn is a paraphrase of Psalm 136, the Psalm of the Day.)

SECOND LESSON:

First John 4:7-21

St. John writes: Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. ⁸Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love. ⁹God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. ¹⁰In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. ¹¹Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. ¹²No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us.

¹³By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. ¹⁴And we have seen and do testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world. ¹⁵God abides in those who confess that Jesus is the Son of God, and they abide in God. ¹⁶So we have known and believe the love that God has for us.

God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them. ¹⁷Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world. ¹⁸There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. ¹⁹We love because he first loved us. ²⁰Those who say, "I love God," and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen. ²¹The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

THE HOLY GOSPEL:

St. John 15:1-8

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the fifteenth chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said: ¹"I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. ²He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. ³You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. ⁴Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. ⁵I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. ⁶Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. ⁷If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. ⁸My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

CONFESSION OF FAITH: (8:15) Dr Martin Luther's Explanation to the First Article of the Apostles' Creed.

I believe that God has created me and all that exists. He has given me and still preserves my body and soul with all their powers. He provides me with food and clothing, home and family, daily work, and all I need from day to day. God also protects me in time of danger and guards me from every evil. All this he does out of fatherly and divine goodness and mercy, though I do not deserve it. Therefore, I surely ought to thank and praise, serve and obey Him. This is most certainly true.

“Let All Things Now Living”

THE OFFERTORY PRAYER FOR EASTER 5

A: Let us pray. You are the vine, Lord; we are the branches.

C: You connect us in love to yourself and to each other.

A: Connect us again, Lord,

C: as we join in your feast of love.

A: We praise you now and evermore.

C: Amen

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING:

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.

C: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

P: It is indeed right and salutary that we should at all times and in all places offer thanks and praise to you, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and ever-living God. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of our Lord; for he is the true Passover Lamb who gave himself to take away our sin, who by his death has destroyed death, and by his rising has brought us to eternal life. And so, with Mary Magdalene and Peter and all the witnesses of the resurrection, with earth and sea and all their creatures, and with angels and archangels, cherubim and seraphim, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might:
 Heav- en and earth are full of your glo- ry. Ho - san - na. Ho - san - na.
 Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

P: Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord,
 heaven and earth are full of your glory.
 In great love you sent to us Jesus, your Son,
 who reached out to heal the sick and suffering,
 who preached good news to the poor,
 and who, on the cross, opened his arms to all.
 In the night in which he was betrayed,
 our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
 broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
 Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
 Do this for the remembrance of me.
 Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
 and gave it for all to drink, saying:
 This cup is the new covenant in my blood,
 shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
 Do this for the remembrance of me.
 Remembering, therefore, his death, resurrection, and ascension,
 we await his coming in glory.
 Pour out your Holy Spirit,
 that by this Holy Communion we may know
 the unity we share with all your people in the body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honor is yours, almighty Father, now and forever.

C: Amen

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

forever and ever. Amen

FOSTER CARE MONTH

Did you know that there are more than 10,000 children and youth who reside in foster care across Missouri! These kids are uprooted and displaced from their homes through no fault of their own.

May is National Foster Care Month. Join with Lutheran Family and Children’s Services in special observance of these children, their families, and the licensed foster parents who are there with open, loving arms.

Please take a minute today -- the first Sunday of National Foster Care Month -- and together let us remember in prayer the children and youth who reside in foster care.

Here is a prayer you could offer : Lord God, we thank you that we are part of your family through faith in Jesus. We remember before you all those children who live in foster homes. We pray that they might experience love, care and the connection of belonging in a family. Open hearts that they might find forever families in Jesus’s Name. Amen

Pastor Alan Erdman of LFCS invites you to put this short prayer on your kitchen table or next to your bed that these children are remembered throughout the month of May.

If you’d like to learn more about foster care, visit with Anita Cole.

Vacation Bible School

This year's VBS will take children on an "Adventure on Promise Island" where the children will learn that God promises to be with us, to care about us, to give us what we need, to save us, and to answer us! This fun-filled event is for children age three to those going into fourth grade. This year students entering the fifth grade will participate in the First Communion "milestone" class (held at the same time as VBS).

VBS starts on the evening of Monday, June 25, and ends on Friday, June 29. Each session begins at 6:00 p.m. and ends at 8:30 p.m. On the island, kids will make crafts, participate in service projects, and learn the stories which Jesus told about everyday people in everyday situations.

Registration has started. The fees are $5.00 per child. Registration forms are available at the church welcome desk and in the school office. You can register on-line at www.alcs-web.com. (Click on "Faith Formation" and select "Vacation Bible School" then click on "Register for Vacation Bible School.") For more information, contact Theresa Molden (bedmold@swbell.net). To volunteer to help at VBS, sign up on the attendance form.

Join the excitement of Promise Island -- where kids discover God's life-saving love!
